

Our Mission

The Pacific Council's mission is to strengthen Los Angeles and California's impact on international issues. We engage global thought leaders from diverse professional and personal backgrounds to share fresh perspectives and ideas, fostering informed discourse and impactful policy change.

As an organization, we:

- INFORM and ENGAGE leaders to effect change on global issues.
- BUILD community networks that stimulate thoughtful and intelligent dialogue.
- ARE A LEADING FORCE in policy discussions from a Los Angeles vantage point.

"I am delighted to be back at the Pacific Council at a time when there has never been a greater need for informed, nonpartisan, dispassionate, and civil discussion of issues that directly affect our national security, global role, and the vitality of our democracy."

Dr. Jerrold D. Green

PACIFIC COUNCIL

Leading West Coast Global Affairs

Each year, we curate high-impact events and meetings designed to keep our members at the forefront of global issues. Our delegations visit domestic and international destinations critical to U.S. policy, engaging directly with global leaders, visionary thinkers, and influential policymakers. These discussions provide insider perspectives and bold, innovative viewpoints that challenge the status quo.

What is the Pacific Council?

The Pacific Council is a nonpartisan membership organization focused on international affairs. Membership is the driving force behind everything at the Pacific Council. We unite leaders across industries and sectors to exchange ideas and stay informed on critical global affairs issues that impact us locally and abroad.

Pacific Council members thrive on a shared commitment to international engagement, meaningful dialogue, and collaborative action. Our members are business and civic leaders, policymakers, issue experts, academics, and community leaders who are committed to impacting global policy.

We are a member community of thoughtful, global citizens whose experience and passion inform smart policy and discourse, which drives impactful change.

Pacific Council members have the opportunity to learn from fellow policy experts, engage in global policy dialogue, build professional and personal connections with members locally, nationally, and internationally, and have access to various in-person and virtual activities.

We host situation briefings on breaking international developments, collaborate with members to craft and share thought-provoking op-eds and analyses in our online Magazine, and share insight and news with a diverse audience through our engaging email newsletter.
